BLACK MOUNTAIN CAPITAL HOSTS PARTY FOR FARRELL BUILDING CO.'S FIRST NYC SHOWROOM

Hampton's builder-to-the-stars, Joe Farrell, launched his first Manhattan showroom in Tribeca sponsored with Black Mountain Capital's Alex Elezaj. Invited guests were top NYC brokers, who attended the opening party at Farrell Building's new showroom at 11 Hubert Street.

"The event was to introduce New York City brokers to the Hampton's top luxury builder," said Alex Elezaj, founder and managing director of Black Mountain Capital, a Manhattan-based real estate capital advisory firm and one of the go-to firms that work with many high-end clients in the market for luxury properties in New York City and the Hamptons.

"It was a great night for all the brokers to see some of the Farrell Building Company's spectacular one-of-a-kind projects displayed on large television screens," said Jacqueline Elezaj of Black Mountain Capital. 🇺🇸
